

Correct LED Sign Placement

Sign post turned toward roadway to allow LED light cone to broadcast correctly toward oncoming traffic. Correct degree of offset to be determined at location. Applies to a square mounting post only.

Round pole mounting will still require proper aligning of the sign on the round pole to the roadway.

Special attention to mounting is required when mounting to existing poles. Inspection of pole placement is required to determine if LED sign will broadcast onto roadway as desired

Incorrect LED Sign Placement

